Organ—Choral in A Minor César Franck

Call to Worship—Fill Your Hearts With Prayer Kathryn Daniel

Echo Chorus: Misses Forbus, Jones, Barker, Culbreth, Myers, Wagner, Percilla, Grainger, and Jackson.

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.

Why so disquieted? Fill your hearts with prayer.

He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall,

Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.

Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful, Have we forgotten our Savior reigns?

Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?

God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.

Hymn—All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name (Miles Lane)
William Shrubsole

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—God, My Shepherd, Walks Beside Me Bach-Dickinson
Soloist: Mr. William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

God, my Shepherd, walks beside me, And I know His way is best.
Where His tender care doth guide me, Shall no evil e'er betide me,
In His love I calmly rest;

God, my Shepherd, walks beside me, And I know His way is best;
In His love I calmly rest.

The Lord my Guide vouchsafes to be, To Him full trust I render;
The Lord, my Shepherd, carries me To pastures fair and tender:
He leads me on by waters still, My soul with comfort He doth fill,
My Strength and sure Defender.

Hymn—Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthron'd (Ortonville)
Thomas Hastings

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Be of the Same Mind One toward Another Kathryn Daniel
Soloist: Mr. John P. Waggoner, Baritone

Praise the Lord, O my soul. Bless his holy name.

Be of the same mind one toward another.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath:

Patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer;

For it is written, vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Be not overcome of evil, But overcome evil with good.

Praise ye the Lord. While I live will I praise the Lord.

"Be of the same mind one toward another."

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Call to Worship—God of the Dew, God of the Sun

T. Carl Whitmer

Soloists: Miss Nancy Slaven, Soprano
Miss Ann Carol Hogue, Mezzo-soprano
Mr. James Matthews, Tenor

God of the Dew, In gentlest ministry, As silently Would I some soul refresh anew.
God of the Sun, Far flaming heat and light Be my delight on radiant errands swift to run.
God of the Star To its own orbit true, My soul imbue with dread, lest I Thine order mar.
God of the Sea, Majestic, vast, profound. Enlarge my bound, Broader and deeper let me be.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Hail, Thou Gladdening Light Gretchaninoff-Warmson

Hail! Thou light of Heav'n, of His pure glory poured, Thou Son of God, Jesu Christ, our Lord.
Now are we come to the sun's hour of rest; the lights of ev'ning around us shine;
We hymn the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Holy Ones, divine!
Most worthy, Thou at all times to be sung with undefiled tongue,
O Son of God, Holy art Thou, and worthy to be sung!
Source of life alone; Therefore in all the world, Thy glories, Lord, they own.

Hymn—Through All the Changing Scenes of Life (Irish)

From a Collection of Hymns and Sacred Poems

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—O Lord God, Unto Whom Vengeance

Belongeth Robert Baker

Soloist: Mr. Clarence Smith, Baritone

O Lord God, unto whom vengeance belongeth: O God, show thyself. Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph, How long shall they utter and speak hard things?

They break in pieces thy people. They slay the widow and stranger: and murder the fatherless.

Yet they say, The Lord shall not see.

Man that is in honor and understandeth not is like the beasts that perish.

For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments.

I will praise thee, O Lord. I will sing unto thee among the people.

Be thou exalted, O God; let thy glory be above all the earth.

I will praise thee, O Lord.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Parable of the Car Wheels"

Professor James T. Cleland

Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance

upon you,

And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,

And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Toccata from Suite Gothique

Boëllmann

The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—When Morning Gilds the Skies (Laudes Domini)

J. Barnby

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—God of the Open Air

Noble Cain

(Dedicated to J. Foster Barnes and the Chapel Choir)

These are the things I prize and hold of dearest worth:

Light of the sapphire skies, Peace of the silent hills,
Shelter of forest, Comfort of the grass, Music of birds, murmur of little rills,

Shadows of clouds that swiftly pass, and after showers,
The smell of flowers, And of the good brown earth, And best of all,
Along the way, Friendship and mirth.

So let me keep these treasures of the humble heart in true possession, owning them by love

And when at last I can no longer move among them freely, but must part

From the green fields and waters clear, Let me not creep into some darkened room

And hide from all that makes the world so bright and dear,
But throw the windows wide to welcome in the light;

Then, while I clasp some well beloved hand, Let me once more have sight of the far sky

And of the smiling land! Then gently fall on sleep,
And breathe my body back to Nature's care, my spirit back to Thee,
God of the open air!

Hymn—Lead On, O King Eternal (Lancashire)

H. Smart

Offertory Anthem—The Lord Is Great,
from "The Creation"

Haydn

Soloists: Miss Helen Cahn, Soprano

Mr. George P. Clark, Jr., Tenor

The Lord is great, and great his might,
The Lord is great, his glory lasts for ever and evermore.

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Organ—Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring Bach
Ave Maria Arcadelt-Liszt
Largo Handel

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius
The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud, Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—For the Beauty of the Earth (Dix) C. Kocher
Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Lord of All Being Mark Andrews
Soloist: John Bechtel, Baritone

Lord of all being, throned a-far, Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Centre and soul of ev'ry sphere, Yet to each loving heart how near!
Sun of our life, Thy quick'ning ray Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, Thy softened light Cheers the long watches of the night.
Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn; Our noon-tide is Thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch, Thy mercy's sign; All, save the clouds of sin are Thine.
Lord of all life, below, above, Whose light is truth, Whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever blazing throne We ask no lustre of our own.
Grant us Thy truth to make us free, And kindly hearts that yearn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim One holy light, one heav'nly flame.

Hymn—Are Ye Able (Beacon Hill) H. S. Mason

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Now Thank We All Our God Crüger-Mueller

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms, Hath blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today!
O may this bounteous God Thru all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace, And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills In this world and the next.
All glory be to God For all He hath created,
From us whom He so high Among His works enstated.
To praise Him while we live! And on His will attend,
Until we there arrive Where song shall have no end.
Now thank we all our God!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, assisted by Julia W. Mueller, Violist, will present a recital of modern music on Sunday afternoon, May 2, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

The program follows:

Sigfrid Karg-Elert (1879-1933)

Chorale-Improvisations from Op. 65

"Now thank we all our God"

"Rejoice greatly, O my Soul"

"O God, Thou faithful God"

Karg-Elert, a German composer and organist, was a pioneer in the use of tonal impressionism in organ compositions. His sixty-six chorale-improvisations are among his most significant works. Note the inventiveness in the treatment of these three chorals which are based on Lutheran hymns.

Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

Carillon

The Carillon is from a set of 24 Pieces en style libre which Vierne wrote for pedal piano or small organ. However, it achieves a brilliant and exciting effect on a larger instrument.

Leo Sowerby (1895- )

Poem

JULIA W. MUELLER, viola

Leo Sowerby was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan. At the age of fourteen he went to Chicago to continue his musical education. He has remained there ever since, except for fifteen months in the Army and three years as the holder of the first American Prix de Rome. He is now organist at Saint James Episcopal Church in Chicago and teacher in the American Conservatory of Music.

The Poem was written in 1942 for William Primrose and E. Power Biggs, who introduced it at a broadcast performance. Last summer it was given a second performance when Samuel Lifschey, first violist of the Philadelphia Orchestra, played it in concert at the Juilliard School of Music.

This work is beautifully adapted to the viola and organ. It is more dissonant than most of Sowerby's works. The principal theme is strange and unusually plaintive. The secondary theme is romantic, a trait inherent in so many of Sowerby's compositions. These two themes are given out first on the organ then developed by the viola. A spiritual quality pervades this work and leads to a peaceful conclusion.

Henry Mulet (1878- )

Tu Es Petra

Mulet is organist of the Church of Saint Philippe du Roule, Paris, and Professor of Organ at the Ecole Niedermeyer, a school of church music. His principal work is the set of ten Byzantine Sketches of which this toccata, "Thou Art the Rock," is number ten of the series. It is modern music used in a dramatic and brilliant style.

Call to Worship—God be in my Head Davies

God be in my head, And in my understanding; God be in mine eyes, and in my looking;
God be in my mouth, And in my speaking; God be in my heart, And in my thinking;
God be at mine end, And at my departing.

Hymn—O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing (Azmon)

Spirit of God! descend upon my heart; Wean it from earth, thro' all its pulses move;
Stoop to my weakness, mighty as Thou art, And make me love Thee as I ought to love.
I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies, No sudden rending of the veil of clay.
No angel visitant, no op'ning skies; But take the dimness of my soul away.
Hast Thou not hid us love Thee, God and King?
All, all Thine own, soul, heart and strength and mind; I see Thy cross;
There teach my heart to cling: O let me seek Thee, and O let me find!
Teach me to love Thee, as Thine angels love, One holy passion filling all my frame;
The kindling of the heav'n descended Dove. My heart an altar, and Thy love the flame. Amen.

Hymn—Holy Spirit, Truth Divine (Mercy)
arr. from L. M. Gottschalk

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Unfold, Ye Portals from "The Redemption" Gounod

Unfold, ye portals everlasting, With welcome to receive Him ascending on high!
Behold the King of Glory! He mounts up through the sky,
Back to the heav'nly mansions hasting. Unfold for lo, the King comes nigh.
But who is He, the King of Glory? He who Death overcame, the Lord in battle mighty.
But who is He, the King of Glory? Of hosts He is the Lord; of angels and of powers:
The King of Glory is the King of the saints.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ORGAN RECITAL

There will be an organ recital Sunday afternoon, April 11, at 4:00 o'clock, in the University Chapel, by Mildred L. Hendrix. Mrs. Hendrix will be assisted by Clarence Smith, baritone.

Following is the program:

Johann Sebastian Bach
(1685-1750)

Toccata and Adagio in C

Weimar Period

The toccata opens with a brilliant manual recitative leading to a fine pedal solo which contains the two themes developed in the following principal section of the movement. The beautiful adagio in A minor might have been written for violin solo with cembalo accompaniment. A short passage written in seven voices, and calling for a rapid crescendo, closes this movement.

Choral Preludes

"O Man, Bewail Thy Grievous Fall" from the Orgelbuchlein

This choral is the colorature type of setting. Bach expresses religious fervor by elaborate ornamentation of a beautiful and expressive melody.

"O Hail This Brightest Day of Days"

from the Orgelbuchlein

In most of these choral preludes Bach uses a melody with an accompaniment in which a motivo expresses some emotion. Thus he anticipated Wagner's leit-motive. The motive of joy pervades the alto and tenor of "O Hail This Brightest Day of Days." The melody sings out triumphantly on the solo reeds.

"My Heart Is Filled with Longing"

from Twelve Choral Preludes

This melody was written by Hans Hassler in the sixteenth century. As a choral prelude Bach developed it with a very little decoration and perfect harmonization. It appears many times, with slight changes, in his "Passion According to Saint Matthew."

From "The Passion According to Saint Matthew"

Leipzig Period

Recitative—"At Evening, Hour of Calm and Rest"

At evening, hour of calm and rest	Our peace with God is evermore assured,
Was Adam's fall made manifest,	For Jesus hath His Cross endured.
At evening, too, the Lord's redeeming love.	His body thou dost crave,
At evening, homeward turned the dove;	Thou, His disciple, for the grave.
An olive-leaf the while she bore.	O let us all regard with thankful wonder
O heauteous time, O evening hour!	His precious death, and on its meaning ponder.

Aria—"Make Thee Clean, My Heart, from Sin"

Make thee clean, my heart from sin
Unto Jesus welcome giving.

Clarence Smith, Baritone

Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor

Weimar Period

The passacaglia is an old dance in triple time, used in a set of variations over a ground bass.

This work was composed during the latter part of the nine years which Bach spent at Weimar. Its majestic theme is found in the bass throughout the first ten variations. It then moves from the bass to other parts before it returns to its original position for the final triumphant climax.

The fugue is a double type in which the secondary theme accompanies the principal theme from the very beginning. In addition, there is a counter subject in sixteenth notes. Despite this, the entire fugue is wonderfully clear and well developed.

CAMPUS CLUB LUNCHEON

Call to Worship—Lead Me, Lord Samuel S. Wesley
 Lead me, Lord, lead me in Thy righteousness, make Thy way plain before my face.

For it is Thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Hymn—Holy, Holy, Holy (Nicaea) John B. Dykes

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Tenor Solo—How Beautiful upon the Mountains F. F. Harker
 Dr. C. H. Richards, Jr.

Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high, and look about toward the east,

And behold thy children gather'd from the west unto the east
 By the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the remembrance of God.
 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings,

That publisheth peace, that publisheth salvation: that saith unto Zion Thy God reigneth!

The glorious majesty of the Lord shall endure for ever: The Lord shall rejoice in all His works;

The earth shall tremble at the look of Him: if He do but touch the hills, they shall smoke.

I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will praise my God while I have my being.

Hymn—Crown Him with Many Crowns (Diademata) George J. Elvey

Scripture

Double Quartette—Spirit of God T. A. Humason
 Soloists: Mrs. A. E. Stanley, Soprano;
 Mr. J. P. Waggoner, Baritone

Spirit of God! descend upon my heart; Wean it from earth, thro' all its pulses move;

Stoop to my weakness, mighty as Thou art, And make me love Thee as I ought to love.

I ask no dream, no prophet ecstasies, No sudden rending of the veil of clay.

No angel visitant, no op'ning skies; But take the dimness of my soul away.

Hast Thou not bid us love Thee, God and King?

All, all Thine own, soul, heart and strength and mind; I see Thy cross;

There teach my heart to cling: O let me seek Thee, and O let me find!

Teach me to love Thee, as Thine angels love, One holy passion filling all my frame;

The kindling of the heav'n descended Dove. My heart an altar, and Thy love the flame. Amen.

Sermon

Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You an Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance
upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Choral and Prière from Suite Gothique Boellmann
Meditation Bubeck

Call to Worship—Lead Me, Lord Samuel S. Wesley

Hymn—The Spacious Firmament on High (Creation)

F. J. Haydn

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—A Song in the Night R. H. Woodman
Soloists: Miss Lydia Hutchings, Soprano
Gordon Reed, Baritone

While all things were in quiet silence, and the night was in the midst of her course,

The Almighty word of the Lord, The word of the Lord came down.
All ye inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth
See ye! and when he bloweth a trumpet Hear ye!
Ye shall have a song in the night When a holy solemnity is kept.
With gladness of heart As when one goeth with a pipe to come unto the mountain of the Lord.

There is a song so thrilling, so far all songs excelling,
That he who sings it, sings it oft again. No mortal did invent it,
But God by angels sent it, So deep and earnest, yet so sweet and plain.

The love that it revealeth, All earthly sorrows healeth;
They flee like mist before the break of day.
When, O, my soul, thou learnest This song of songs in earnest, Thy cares and sorrows all shall pass away. Ye shall have a song so thrilling in the night.

Hymn—All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name! (Miles' Lane)

William Shrubsole

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Give Ear, O Shepherd of Israel

R. S. Stoughton

Soloists: Miss Vivian Clouse, Soprano
E. H. Nease, Jr., Tenor

Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, that leadest Joseph like a flock:
That dwellest between the cheruhim, Shine forth, O Shepherd of Israel.

Turn us again, O God, and cause Thy face to shine,
Turn us again, O God, and we shall be saved.
O Lord God of hosts, how long wilt Thou be angry against the pray'r of Thy people?

Thou feedest them with the bread of tears, and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

RECITAL ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 7

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, and the Duke Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Allan H. Bone, will present a recital on Sunday afternoon, March 7, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

The program follows:

Sonata pian e forte Giovanni Gabrieli
(1557-1612)

BRASS CHOIRS

Gabrieli was composer and organist at the Saint Mark's Cathedral in Venice. The architecture of the Cathedral, in the form of a Greek cross, encouraged antiphonal rendering of both Vocal and Instrumental performance.
The ecclesiastical composition here presented by two antiphonal brass choirs was written in 1600. It is one of the first compositions to incorporate the deliberately emotional style in which the calculated use of soft-loud dynamic contrast and instrumental color played a prominent part. The composer stipulated the specific instruments which were to be employed; thus contributing to the establishment of a positive technique of orchestration.

Concerto Grosso in A minor Op. 3, No. 8 Antonio Vivaldi
(1680-1743)
Allegro Larghetto e spiritoso Allegro
Solo Violins: Robert Carter, Marcella Gavey
THE CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

Scored for two violins and string orchestra this work comes out of the set of twelve concerti grossi comprising Vivaldi's Opus 3 which appeared in 1715. One of the noblest of Vivaldi's works this concerto exhibits a unique sense for structural compactness; at the same time allowing for an originality of conception which made of Vivaldi's model for future composition in this form.

Concerto in A minor No. II Johann Sebastian Bach
(1685-1750)

Allegro Larghetto e spiritoso Allegro
This Concerto is Bach's transcription for organ of the Vivaldi Concerto Grosso just heard.
Bach's arrangement was accomplished with unusual faithfulness to the original and shows how admirably the resources of the organ are suited to the delineation of the soli-tutti design of the concerto grosso form.
In registering the middle movement stops have been chosen to resemble the Baroque organ of the Bach-Handel period.

Four Sonatas for Organ and String Orchestra Wolfgang Mozart
(1756-1791)
No. 10 in D major, (Kochel 245)
No. 13 in C major, (Kochel 328)
No. 9 in F major, (Kochel 244)
No. 4 in D major, (Kochel 144)

The name of Mozart is rarely associated with the organ; yet he held various organ posts during his short lifetime.
In 1777 Mozart was appointed organist to the Cathedral of Salzburg and it was during this four year tenure that Mozart wrote his fifteen Organ Sonatas for organ and small orchestra. Though these works are the instrument's only inheritance from the composer's pen they are of such unique charm and beauty that they constitute one of the treasures in the rich organ literature of the centuries. They are so essentially Mozartean as to be worthy of a place in concert performance along with the symphonies.
The sonatas are all one movement in length and in them Mozart seems to have aimed specifically at a particular tone coloring and effect with the strings in pitch both below and above the organ, the organ itself forming a miniature woodwind ensemble binding all together.

Organ Concerto No. 10, in D minor Op. 7, No. 4 George Frederick Handel
(1685-1759)
Adagio-Allegro Larghetto Allegro moderato
ORGAN AND ORCHESTRA

From the second set of six Organ Concerti, published in 1740, the present Concerto No. 10 is taken. To Handel the organ was a vehicle for virtuoso display polished by the perfect simplicity that was Handel's art. Organ and orchestra are played one against the other in solo and ritornello fashion leaving complete freedom for that improvisational facility within the solo organ which was such a hallmark of Handel's ability as a performer.
After the first Allegro we come to Organo ad libitum. Here the Air, marked largo, from Handel's 12th Concerto Grosso for string orchestra has been inserted.

Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, February 29, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "The Convoy System."

The order of service follows:

DR. WALDO BEACH, Presiding Minister

Organ—Bible Poems Weinberger
Chapel Bells Joseph F. Hewitt
(Dedicated to Duke University)

Call to Worship—Lead Us, Heavenly Father Roger Quilter
Soloist: Dr. C. H. Richards, Tenor

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our Father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.
Amen.

Hymn—Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones Arr. by Kirchengesäng
(Lasst uns erfreuen)

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—The Living God Joseph F. Hewitt
Soloist: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

As the hart panteth after the water brook My soul thirsteth for God, The living God.
Let Thine eyes behold me And hear my supplications; Show Thy loving kindness
For those who put their trust in Thee. Protect me from those who would destroy me.
Keep me as the apple of Thine eye. Hide me beneath the shadow of thy wing
From the wicked who oppress me And from mine enemies, who compass me about.
As for me, I shall be glorified When I awake after thy likeness.
Arise, Oh Lord, And deliver my soul from evil; Deliver my soul from the wicked.
As the hart panteth after the brook My soul thirsteth for God, The living God. Amen.

Hymn—Eternal Father, Strong to Save (Melita) John B. Dykes

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Fierce Raged the Tempest o'er the Deep T. Frederick H. Candlyn

Fierce raged the tempest o'er the deep, Watch did Thine anxious servants keep.
But Thou wast wrapped in guileless sleep, Calm and still.
"Save, Lord, we perish!" was their cry, "O save us in our agony!"
Thy word above the storm rose high, "Peace, be still."
The wild winds hushed; the angry deep Sank, like a little child, to sleep;
The sullen billows ceased to leap, At Thy will,
So when our life is clouded o'er, And storm winds drift us from the shore,
Say, lest we sink to rise no more, "Peace be still."

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Convoy System" Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Carillon—Sortie

Mulet

Clarence F. Smith, Jr.

It is enough, O Lord, now take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers!

I desire to live no longer; now let me die, for my days are but vanity!

I have been very jealous for the Lord God of Hosts, for the children of Israel have broken thy covenant,

And thrown down thine altars, and slain all thy prophets, slain them with the sword.

I have been very jealous for the Lord God of Hosts, and I, even I only am left;

And they seek my life to take it away. It is enough! O Lord!

Now take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers; now let me die,

Lord, take away my life!

Hymn—I Know Not What the Future Hath (St. Agnes)

John B. Dykes

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Jerusalem's Wall Cecil Forsyth
Soloist: Dr. E. B. Dunlap, Jr., Baritone

I give you the end of a golden string: Only wind it into a ball,
It will lead you in at Heaven's gate, Built in Jerusalem's wall.
I am in God's presence night and day, He never turns His face away.

To Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love All pray in their distress,
And to these virtues of delight Return their thankfulness.

For Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love Is God our Father dear;
And Mercy, Pity, Peace, and Love Is man, His child and care.

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be,
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.

Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God, fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.
Amen.

Cleland, Preacher to the University, will preside, and Dr. Harold A. Bosley, Dean of the Divinity School, will deliver the Communion Meditation.

The Communion Service has been instituted as a part of the program of the Duke University Church and, as is the custom, all members and friends of the University community are cordially invited to participate in the service.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, February 8, at 4:00 o'clock. The program follows:

George Frederick Handel (1685-1759)

Prelude and Fugue in F minor

The prelude, marked adagio, has dignity and depth of feeling. The subject of the fugue is simple, yet majestic, and its development is easily followed.

Handel was greatly admired as an organ virtuoso, yet he left comparatively few solo works for this instrument. One of his concertos for organ and orchestra will be performed at the next recital in this series.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Sheep May Safely Graze

This prelude is an arrangement by E. Power Biggs of the Soprano Aria from the Birthday Cantata No. 208. The fresh, pastoral character of the music is a remarkable instance of Bach's power of tone painting.

Johann Sebastian Bach

In Thee Is Gladness

The choral prelude, "In Thee Is Gladness," was written for the first Sunday of the New Year. Bach employs rhythmic figures and rapid scale passages to indicate joy. The energetic pedal theme repeats so many times that it has the character of a bossa ostinato.

Authorities differ concerning the registration of this short work for soft organ with high flutes or with full organ. On this program, it is being repeated in order to show the contrasting registrations.

Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

24 Pieces en style libre
7. Meditation
8. Idylle Melancolique
11. Divertissement

Vierne was the blind organist of Notre Dame for thirty-seven years. His collection of 24 Pieces presents varied and interesting short sketches in every major and minor key. The first two to be played today depict a mood of pensive and melancolic reflection. The Divertissement is a little scherzo expressing the French daintiness and charm.

Alan Floyd

Antiphon on the Litany

The title Antiphon on the Litany, as used here, is a short piece or plain song in the form of a prayer or petition for mercy. It may be used for church service or recital because its liturgical style creates a feeling of worship and restfulness.

Henry Mulet (1878- )

Carillon-Sortie

The Carillon-Sortie is from a set of ten Byzantine Sketches which Mulet composed while organist at the church of Sacre Coeur in Paris. It is a brilliant descriptive piece written in toccata form. The effect of many bells ringing together produces a bizarre and joyous finale.

ERASMUS CLUB MEETING

The Erasmus Club will meet on Monday, February 9, at 8:00 p.m., in the Green Room of East Duke Building. Professor F. A. G. Cowper will speak on "Recent Discoveries on Gautier D'Arras as Poet and Judge."

LECTURE BY PROFESSOR ORSINI

The Department of English announces the third lecture in the series by Visiting Professor Napoleone Orsini, of the University of Florence. The subject is "Petrarch." It will be given on Wednesday afternoon, February 11, at 4:30 o'clock in the Green Room of East Duke Building. The public is cordially invited.

The purpose of the Universal Day of Prayer for students is to offer students on Duke University campus an opportunity to join in a prayer petition with other Christian students throughout the world that brotherhood may become a reality through the help of God.

Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, February 1, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel.

The order of service follows:

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Choral Preludes: Bach

"Blessed Jesu, We Are Here"

"God's Time is Best"

"O Hail This Brightest Day of Days"

Call to Worship—Lead Us, Heavenly Father Roger Quilter

Soloist: Dr. J. H. Phillips, Tenor

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.
Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.
Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.
Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy.
Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.
Amen.

Hymn—Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me (Pilot) John E. Gould

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Baritone Solo—It Is Enough from "Elijah" Mendelssohn
Clarence F. Smith, Jr.

It is enough, O Lord, now take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers!

I desire to live no longer; now let me die, for my days are but vanity!

I have been very jealous for the Lord God of Hosts, for the children of Israel have broken thy covenant, and thrown down thine altars, and slain all thy prophets, slain them with the sword.

I have been very jealous for the Lord God of Hosts, and I, even I only am left;

And they seek my life to take it away. It is enough! O Lord! Now take away my life, for I am not better than my fathers; now let me die.

Lord, take away my life!

Hymn—Eternal Father, Strong to Save (Melita) John B. Dykes

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Fierce Raged the Tempest o'er the Deep T. Frederick H. Candlyn

Fierce raged the tempest o'er the deep, Watch did Thine anxious servants keep.

But Thou wast wrapped in guileless sleep, Calm and still.

"Save, Lord, we perish!" was their cry, "O save us in our agony!"

Thy word above the storm rose high, "Peace, be still."

The wild winds hushed; the angry deep Sank, like a little child, to sleep;

The sullen billows ceased to leap, At Thy will.

So when our life is clouded o'er, And storm winds drift us from the shore,

Say, lest we sink to rise no more, "Peace, be still."

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin
The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you.

And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you, And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Prelude and Fugue in G Major Bach

Set as a play, taking place on the stage of the famed Globe Theatre in Shakespearean England, circa 1600, the "photographed play" is a stage performance in celluloid until the camera helps the mind to "piece out imperfections" and breaks through the limitations of the playing platform to bring to the screen the invasion of France, the exciting charge of the knights of Agincourt, the charming love scenes between Henry and Princess Kate.

Olivier, whose recent appearance on Broadway as leading member of the "Old Vic" Company have catapulted him into first rank as an actor, not only has the starring role in "Henry V"; he also produced and directed it.

The order of service follows:

PROFESSOR H. E. MYERS, Presiding Minister

Organ—Psalm XIX

Ave Maria

A Gothic Cathedral

Marcello

Arcadelt-Liszt

Pratella-Weaver

Call to Worship—Lead Us, Heavenly Father Roger Quilter

Soloist: Grimes Slaughter, Tenor

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;

Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee;

Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.

Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.

Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.

Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.

Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy.

Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy:

Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.

Amen.

Hymn—O Worship the King (Lyons)

Adapted from Johann M. Haydn

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—The King of Love My Shepherd Is

Shelley

Soloists: Mrs. J. Foster Barnes, Soprano

Mrs. H. E. Myers, Contralto

Dr. J. H. Phillips, Tenor

J. Foster Barnes, Baritone

E. H. Nease, Jr., Student Director

The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His, And He is mine for ever.

Where streams of living water flow, my ransom'd soul He leadeth.

And where the verdant pastures grow, with food celestial feedeth.

Perverse and foolish, oft I stray'd, hut yet in love He sought me.

And on His shoulder gently laid, And home rejoicing brought me.

In death's dark vale I fear no ill, With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;

Thy rod and staff my comfort still, Thy Cross before to guide me.

Thou spread'st a table in my sight, Thy unction grace hestoweth.

And O the transport of delight, with which my cup o'erfloweth.

And so through all the length of days, Thy goodness faileth never;

Good Shepherd may I sing Thy praise Within Thy house for ever! Amen.

Hymn—Onward, Christian Soldiers (St. Gertrude)

A. S. Sullivan

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Onward, Ye Peoples!

Sibelius-Lefebvre

Onward, ye peoples, strive for the Light!

The Light that the Lord hath given us for our guide,

Who through murk and darkness of night Hath led us in safety unto our reward.

See how the fiery pillar is gleaming, Lighting our steps, when dark is the way.

And the Light of the World, It cleaveth the gloomy blackness of night that else would engulf us.

See the cloudy pillar to shield us safe when the sun would blister us.

Then forward, where faith revealeth the way!

For God is our guide, and He will never fail.

Fires are gleaming, voices are singing forth from Mount Nehoh's heaven-storming height.

Salem! Hark, they call us upward and on, to our Father's home.

Salem! on the horizon, urging us on to God and our home;

And the heavenly choir doth ring from Mount Nehoh, piercing the blue like a living light. Salem!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creature here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"The Unfolding Revelation" Dr. Frank S. Hickman

Dean of the Chapel

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you,

And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you.

And he gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Toccata in E minor

Pachelbel

PROFESSOR JAMES T. CLELAND TO DELIVER SERMON AT UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF WORSHIP SUNDAY, JANUARY 18, AT 11:00 A.M.

Professor James T. Cleland, Preacher to the University, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, January 18, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "On the Necessity of Having a Bad Memory."

The order of service follows:

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Carillon Myron J. Roberts
Benedictus Alec Rowley
Rhosymedre Faughan Williams

Call to Worship—Lead Us, Heavenly Father Roger Quilter
Soloist: Charles Whiteley, Jr., Tenor

Lead us, Heav'nly Father, lead us, O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but thee:
Yet possessing ev'ry blessing If our God our father be.
Saviour breathe forgiveness o'er us, All our weakness thou dost know.

Thou didst tread this earth before us, Thou didst feel its keenest woe.

Lone and dreary, faint and weary, Thro' the desert thou didst go.

Spirit of our God, Fill our hearts with heav'nly joy,
Love with ev'ry passion blending Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardon'd, guided, Nothing can our peace destroy.
Amen.

Hymn—Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah (Cwm Rhondda) John Hughes

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—What of the Night? R. G. Thompson
Soloist: Clarence Smith, Baritone

What of the night, O watchman? Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token Of the dawning in the skies?
Or do the shadows linger, Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness That the tarrying morn is come?
Then answer'd the patient watchman From the mountain's lonely height.

To the waiting souls in the valley, I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon That is growing more wide and clear.

And soon shall the sun be flinging His splendours both far and near.
What of the night, O Watchman? Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Naz'reth, Make to our hearts reply:
Over the earth's wild warfare Comes not a time more fair,
Swords into ploughshares beaten, Peace throned ev'rywhere?
Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman, Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal, Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter, Hatred shall be outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory Break on the world at last!

Hymn—O For a Heart to Praise My God (Belmont)
From William Gardiner's Sacred Melodies

Scripture—Philippians 3:1-14.

Offertory Anthem—He Who Would Valiant Be Noble Cain

O Lord, the Mighty God, the everpresent Help in time of trouble,
O Lord, strengthen now our Faith. Renew our souls.
He who would valiant be 'Gainst all disaster,
Must, in all constancy, Follow the Master;
There's no discouragement can make him once relent
His first avowed intent To be a pilgrim!
Oh, praise the Lord Jehovah, For He is a mighty God, my strong deliverer.

Who do beset him 'round with dismal stories Do but themselves confound.
His strength the more is, No foe can stay his might,
Although he fight with giants, He will make good his right To be a pilgrim.

The Lord is a mighty fortress. My tow'r of strength, My rock and my salvation.

Since, Lord, Thou dost defend us with Thy spirit, We know we, at the end,

Shall Life inherit; Then hence all fears, away; I'll fear not what men say;

I'll labor, night and day, To be a pilgrim! Lord, Thou art my God!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"On the Necessity of Having a Bad Memory"
Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You    Lutkin
The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance
upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Allegro from the Sixth Symphony    Widor

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Baritone Solo—The Great Awakening A. Walter Kramer
John P. Waggoner

A beggar stood at the House of God, At the sacred door one morn,
And the wind was sharp with winter's teeth And he shook in his rags forlorn:
The organ peal'd within the church A hymn of warmth and cheer,
And the beggar smil'd as a beggar will Who has no God to fear.
The rich man brush'd him rough aside, The toiler spake awhile,
The widow dropped her widow mite, The courtesan a smile,
The organ peal'd in thunderous praise The saints on flowers trod,
And I look'd beneath the beggar's rags And there reveal'd stood God!

Hymn—How Firm a Foundation (Adeste Fideles—Portuguese Hymn) From John F. Wade's Cantus Diversi
Scripture

Offertory Anthem—God's Time John Sacco

Wait, I say, on the Lord. To ev'rything there is a season,
A time for ev'ry purpose under heaven: a time to be born, a time to die,
A time to pluck up that which is planted, a time to break down,
to build up,
And a time to laugh, to weep, to dance, and a time to mourn.
To ev'rything there is a season, and a time; wait, I say.
There is a time to lose, to keep, and a time of silence, a time to speak,
A time to love, time to gather up atones, a time of war, and a time,
I say unto you, to laugh, weep, lose, and a time of peace.
Be of good courage and believe to see the goodness of the Lord.
In the land of the living, He is the strength of our life.
Our times are in His hands; He is the rock of our defence.
Wait, I say, on the Lord. To ev'rything there is a season and a time.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Life's Irreducible Minimum"
Dr. Daniel A. Poling
Minister, The Temple,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin
The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance
upon you,
And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Toccata in C Major Bach

Soloists: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor; John Waggoner, Baritone;
Mrs. A. E. Stanley, Soprano

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.

To Bethlem did they go, The Shepherds three: To see whe'r it were so or no,
Whether Christ were horn or no to set men free. Masters, in this hall,

Hear ye news today Brought over sea, And ever you I pray.

Nowell! Sing we clear! Holpen are all folk on earth, Born is God's Son so dear.

Then to Bethlem town did the Shepherds go, and in a sorry place Heard the oxen low.

Therein o'd they see a sweet and goodly May, Upon the straw she lay.

And a little child On her arm had she. "Wot ye who this is?" Said the hinds to me.

Ox and ass him know kneeling on their knee: Wondrous joy had I This little Bahe to see.

Nowell! This is Christ the Lord, Masters, be ye glad! Christmas is come in, And no folk should he sad.

Hymn—There's a Song in the Air (Christmas Song)

K. P. Harrington

Offertory Anthem—Star of Courage

Jacques Wolfe

Soloist: George Clark, Tenor

Once on the hills of Galilee A star arose to guide the Three;
And they were wise Who followed far, The light of courage in a star!

For they were lost beside the sea—That has its shores on Galilee,
And they were worn and they were chill, Who saw the heav'n with brightness fill!

And they were come from far to see The Child of God in Galilee.
They followed in the holy light That went before them flaming white!

As on the hills of Galilee A star once flamed to guide the Three,
They too are wise who follow far, With courage guiding like a star!

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked even mine enemies and my foes came upon me,
to eat up my flesh;

They stumbled and fell. Though a host of men he laid against me,
Yet shall not my heart be afraid; and though there rose up war
against me,

Yet will I put my trust in Him.

Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee: Have mercy upon me and hear me.

Thou hast been my succor, leave me not, neither forsake me, O
God of my salvation.

O tarry thou the Lord's leisure, be strong and he shall comfort thine heart!

ORGAN RECITAL TO BE PRESENTED SUNDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 9, AT 4:00 O'CLOCK

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present an organ recital on Sunday afternoon, November 9, at 4:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. She will be assisted by Julia W. Mueller, violinist.

The program follows:

George Frederic Handel (1685-1759)
Suite from "Water Music"
Allegro Vivace
Air
Allegro Maestoso

This snite was taken from music allegedly composed for an aquatic fete given by the Elector of Hanover in 1712. Handel had lost favor with the Elector prior to this composition. It not only restored him to favor hut was such a great success that it brought him an annuity of two hundred pounds. This organ arrangement is by Carl McKinley.

Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (1809-1847)
Sonata in D minor, Number 6
1. Choral with variations

Mendelssohn was the first composer after Bach to add works of any great significance to organ literature. Thus, for one hundred years after Bach, organ composition was almost completely neglected.

November fourth, nineteen hundred forty-seven, was the hundredth anniversary of Mendelssohn's death. In the second century since Bach, a great development occurred in organ literature. We, therefore, owe much to the gifted organist and composer, Felix Mendelssohn, who gave impetus to this remarkable growth.

The sixth, and last sonata, is his most popular organ work. The theme of the first movement is based on the choral, Our Father Which Art in Heaven. This melody has been associated with the text of The Lord's Prayer since 1539. In the sonata, it is used first as a choral, followed by a setting of five lovely variations. The last two combine in a brilliant finale which closes this first movement.

Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (1809-1847)
Concerto op. 64 for Violin
Andante
Allegretto non troppo
Allegro molto vivace

This concerto is deservedly one of the most popular of the violinists' repertory. It was composed in 1844 for Mendelssohn's friend, Ferdinand David, who played the premiere performance and was responsible for the cadenza as it now stands. The second and third movements are to be played today. The second movement, marked andante, is connected to the third by a short introductory passage, allegretto non troppo.

Julia W. Mueller, Violin
Sigfrid Karg-Elert (1879-1933) Now Thank We All Our God

This ancient choral is used here as a Marche Triomphate in a brilliant modern setting by one of Germany's most gifted composers.

Leo Sowerby (1895- ) Carillon
The Carillon opens quietly with beautiful harmonies preparing the way for the ringing of many soft bells and chimes. A climax is reached with the full organ imitating the large bells.

Charles Marie Widor (1844-1937)
Toccata from the "Fifth Organ Symphony"
This is perhaps the most famous of all the modern toccatas which are usually of the moto perpetuo type. Its popularity is well understood when one hears the organ in such brilliant display.

A time to pluck up that which is planted, a time to break down, to build up,
And a time to laugh, to weep, to dance, and a time to mourn.
To ev'rything there is a season and a time; wait, I say.
There is a time to lose, to keep, and a time of silence, a time to speak,

DR. FRANK S. HICKMAN, Presiding Minister

Organ—Prelude and Fugue in G Major
Choral-Preludes:

*Bach
Bach*

"I Call to Thee, Lord Jesus Christ"

"Rejoice Greatly, O My Soul"

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud, Sun of my soul, I cry
aloud

To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.

The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I
kneel and pray.

Hymn—Immortal, Invisible, God only Wise (Joanna)

Arr. by V. D. Thompson

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Contralto Solo—"Entreat me not to leave thee" Gounod

Mrs. H. E. Myers

And Ruth said: Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee,

For whither thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest I will lodge.

Thy people shall be my people, and thy God, my God.

Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried;

The Lord do so to me, and more also, if aught but death part thee and me.

Hymn—O Thou Whose Feet Have Climbed Life's Hill

(Azmon)

Arr. by Lowell Mason

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Ho! Every One That Thirsteth

George C. Martin

Soloist: John Anderson, Bass-baritone

Ho! ev'ry one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and be that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth not?

Hearken diligently unto me, eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me, hear, and your soul shall live.
Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts:

And let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him;

And to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

Then ye shall go out with joy, and he led forth with peace:

The mountains and hills shall break forth before you into singing,
And all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Vision and Intelligence"

Professor James T. Cleland
Preacher to the University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin
The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance
upon you,

And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Grave from the Fantasia in G Major

Bach

The order of service follows:

REV. ROBERT N. DUBOSE, Presiding Minister

Organ—Prelude on the Theme B-A-C-H Richard Keyes Biggs
Bells through the Trees Garth Edmunson

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius-Carroll
The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud, Sun of my soul, I cry
aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night
till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I
kneel and pray.

Hymn—Rise Up, O Men of God (Festal Song)
William H. Walter

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Sing Unto the Lord A. W. Binder
Soloist: Clarence Smith, Baritone

Sing unto the Lord a new song; sing unto the Lord, all the earth;
Sing unto the Lord, bless his name, proclaim his salvation from day to day.
Honor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
Ascribe unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the people, ascribe unto the Lord glory and strength.
O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness, tremble before him,
all the earth.
The Lord reigneth. The world is established that it cannot be moved.
Let the heavens be glad, and the earth be glad, let the field exult and all that is therein.
He will judge the world with righteousness and the people with his faithfulness.
O ye that love the Lord, hate evil; he preserveth the souls of his saints.
Light is sown for the righteous, and joy for the upright in heart.
Be glad in the Lord, all ye righteous, and give thanks to his holy name.

Hymn—Are Ye Able (Beacon Hill) Harry S. Mason
Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Great Is Jehovah Schubert-Lichter
Soloist: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

Great is Jehovah, the Lord. The earth and the heavens hear witness to His might!
'Tis heard in the blasts of the storm, In the roar of the loudthundering stream.
Great is Jehovah the Lord, and mighty His pow'r.
'Tis heard in rustling leaves on the green forest branches,
Seen in the fields rich with golden grain, In flowers the fairest, blushing at dawn.
'Tis seen where stars strew the blue vault of heaven.
Fierce it sounds in the thunder's dread roll, And flames in the lightning's swift and death-dealing flash.
Still clearer thy throbbing heart proclaims Jehovah's pow'r and might.
Still clearer thy heart to thee proclaims Jehovah's pow'r, The Lord
God Almighty.
When to heav'n thou dost pray, Imploring grace and compassion.
Great is Jehovah, the Lord!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Minister, Rayne Memorial Methodist Church,
New Orleans, La.

Orgau—Hymn of Glory Pietro Yon

The Communion Service has been instituted as a part of the program of the Duke University Church and, as is the custom, all members and friends of the University community are cordially invited to participate in the service.

ORGAN RECITAL

Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel on Sunday afternoon, October 5, at 4:00 o'clock. This will be the first of a series of recitals to be presented during the academic year on the first Sunday of each month.

The program follows:

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707) Prelude and Fugue in E minor

This brilliant work is a prelude with two fugues and an adagio coda. The subject of the prelude is constructed like the theme of Bach's Wedge fugue in reverse. The two fugal subjects are short but well exploited.

Buxtehude was born in Helsingborg, Sweden. From 1668 until his death he was organist in Lubeck, Germany. Bach is said to have travelled two hundred miles on foot to hear him play.

Johann Kaspar Kerll (1627-1693) Capriccio Cuen

Kerll was a native of Saxony but at an early age went to Vienna.

Many composers have found the song of the cuckoo fascinating subject matter for organ compositions. Perhaps the imitation of the cuckoo afforded a bit of humor to both composer and listener.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750)

Prelude and Fugue in E minor

This is an early work which Schweitzer says should be made to stand out as if it were hewn in marble. The prelude and fugue are short and closely knit to each other.

Robert Schumann (1810-1856)

Sketch in F minor

Sketch in C major

These two sketches are taken from a set of four which were originally written for pedal-piano. They have become so popular as organ solos that their former use is overlooked.

Frederick Stanley Smith

Introspection

We quote from "The Diapason." "Introspection, by Frederick Stanley Smith, is one of the best of recent American works. It is in the style of a deeply felt and effective rhapsody. Mr. Smith is Music Director of the Raleigh Schools and Organist-Director at the First Baptist Church. Since 1928 he has been one of North Carolina's outstanding musicians and composers."

César Franck (1822-1890)

Choral in A minor, Number 3

Shortly before his death, Franck wrote three chorals which comprise his most important organ work. The A minor is possibly the best known of the three. This composition opens with brilliant running passages, which alternate with the richly harmonized choral. The middle section has a spiritual quality of great beauty. A return to the original toccata style concludes the work.

ERASMUS CLUB

The first meeting of the Erasmus Club for the academic year 1947-48 will be held on Monday, October 6, at 8:00 p.m. in the Green Room of East Duke Building. Professor William H. Irving will read a paper on "French Models for English Letter-Writers."

MARYLA JONAS

The 1947-48 All-Star Concert Series will open in Page Auditorium Tuesday evening, October 7, at 8:15 o'clock with a concert by Maryla Jonas, "the new Polish genius of the pianoforte." Because this is the first concert of the season, patrons are advised to arrive early. All season tickets are sold, but a few seats for this particular concert are available on the stage for $1.50 each and in the orchestra pit for $2.50. For further information, phone F-131, Extension 270, or stop by Room 201, Men's Union.

Anthem—Brother James' Air (Marosa) Arr. Jacob

(Brother James is the familiar name by which many remember James Leith Macheth Bain, who was born in Scotland towards the middle of last century and passed away in 1925.)

Like St. Francis, he combined the spiritual genius of the Mystic with the irresistible charm and trust of the child who loves all men and all creatures.

This Air is perhaps the most beautiful of many that came to him spontaneously, and it has, in its simplicity, something of that rare quality of appeal that Maurice Baring describes thus: "It was a wonderful tune—a tune that opened its arms.")

Hymn—How Sweet the Name of Jesus Sounds (St. Peter)

A. R. Reinagle

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—Psalm 150

César Franck

O praise ye the Lord, Praise God for His greatness.

Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of His pow'r.

Praise ye Him for His mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to His wondrous works.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet: Praise ye Him with the psalt'ry and harp.

Praise ye Him with the timbrel. Praise ye Him with the dance,

Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments.

Praise ye Him upon the high sounding cymbals Let ev'ry thing that hath breath.

Praise the Lord, Praise ye the Lord. Hallelujah.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host: Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Professor James T. Cleland

Preacher to the University

Dr. Harold A. Bosley, Dean of the Divinity School, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship Sunday morning, September 21, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "God and/or Man."

The order of service follows:

PROFESSOR H. E. MYERS, Presiding Minister

Organ—Toccata and Adagio in C Major Bach

The heav'ns and the earth are full of His glory.
 Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) Maz Spicker
 Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.

Hymn—Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee (Hymn to Joy)
Arr. from Beethoven

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Jesu, Saviour, I Am Thine Bach-Steane
 Soloist: William Kirkpatrick, Tenor

Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine, Thou hast bid me call Thee mine,
 All things else I count but loss, Find my Glory in the Cross.
 Jesu, Saviour, I am Thine, Thou hast bid me call Thee mine,
 In this only plea confide, That for enemies Thou hast died.
 O fount of love unbounded, So full, so sweet, so free;
 My thoughts are all confounded, Whene'er I think of Thee.
 For me Thou cam'st from Heaven, To suffer and to die,
 That purchased and forgiven, I might ascend on high.

Hymn—God of Grace and God of Glory (Cwm Rhondda)
John Hughes

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—The Lord Is My Light Horatio Parker
 Incidental Octet: Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Stanley, Miss Barnes,
 Mrs. Myers, Mr. Clark, Dr. Phillips, Dr. Dunlap,
 Mr. Waggoner

The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom then shall I fear?
 The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraid?
 When the wicked even mine enemies and my foes came upon me,
 to eat up my flesh;
 They stumbled and fell. Though a host of men he laid against me,
 Yet shall not my heart be afraid; and though there rose up war
 against me,
 Yet will I put my trust in Him.
 Hearken unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee;
 Have mercy upon me and hear me. Thou hast been my succor,
 Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
 O tarry thou the Lord's leisure, be strong and be shall comfort
 thine heart!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below;
 Praise Him above, ye heavenly host: Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"God and/or Man" Dr. Harold A. Bosley
 Dean of the Divinity School,
 Duke University

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin
 The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance
 upon you,
 And give you peace, the Lord make His face to shine upon you,
 And be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Fugue in C Major (The "Fanfare") Bach
